LOCAL NEWS OF ALL SORTS

The Weather To-day.
Fair; south winds.

Victims of Pension Pay Day.
On Monday the Washington pensioners received their quarterly allotment of money. Some of the old soldiers made good use of their funds, but others drank too much fire-water and fell into the hands of sharks, both male and female, and were robbed. One of the usual results was seen in the long procession of pensioners in the police court dock yesterday. Among these unfortunates were Henry Hurley and Thomas McCauley, who attempted to sleep off their pension day jags on the sidewalk of Twenty-first street north-west. They were awakened by Officer Farham, and the police court officials $5 each for their out-door lodgings. John Camper, George A. Russell, Mollie Armstrong, Frank Hansen, and a list of others each paid a $5 for similar offenses.

Annie's Husband Will Be Arrested.
In the case of Annie Dunn, alias Annie Gray, a shrewd old woman, charged by Policeman T. J. Hanley with keeping a disorderly house, on B street, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets, Judge Kimball decided yesterday that as Annie was living in the house with her husband, the man and not the woman, was answerable to the law for the offense charged. A warrant was thereupon sworn out for the husband, the case against the wife being dismissed.

Sued to Collect All Money Due.
Mitchell & Deed, yesterday sued William A. Turner and others to collect for material furnished for plumbing for buildings on lots 43, 44 and 45, square 72.

Robert J. Douglas, yesterday sued W. V. Tierney and others on a judgment for $175 and costs and asked that lot 8, square 637, be sold to satisfy his claim.

Robert J. Douglas, yesterday sued James H. Smith and others to recover on a judgment creditors' bill for $263. The sale of part of lot 1 and 17 in square 104, to satisfy the debt, is asked.

Tricked to 'Touch' a Pensioner.
On the testimony of Calman John A. Manuel and Policemen Flather and Kilmartin, in the police court yesterday, Frank Weber was adjudged guilty of being a suspicious character by Judge Kimball, and required to give real estate bond in the sum of $100 or go to the workhouse for thirty days. Weber was arrested in the act of taking money from the pockets of a drunken pensioner while in Manuel's care.

Masonic Election.
King David Lodge, No. 28, F. A. M. A. M. of Brookland, D. C., on Tuesday evening elected the following officers: William H. Stiles, W. M.; Lewis Sherman, S. W.; M. P. Woodward, J. W.; Dr. H. J. Peard, secretary; John B. Lord, treasurer; Postmaster L. G. Carmick, member of Masonic board of relief; John H. Small, member of St. John's Mission Society; and C. H. Rice, Jr., a strong, and Dr. A. L. Jackson, proxies to the grand lodge.

He Slept Beside the Statues.
At an early hour yesterday morning, before daylight, Policemen Roberts was surprised to notice in the flickering glare of the electric lights that there were five recumbent figures surrounding the Garfield statue at the foot of Capitol Hill. The investigation he discovered that while four of the figures were in heroic bronze, representing the "student, statesman, philosopher, and warrior," the fifth was in flesh and blood, and only represented a hungry, half-crazed "bobo," John Harney, poorer in this world's goods than the illustrious Garfield was when he drove mules to the canal. In the investigation, Harney said he was homeless and friendless and wanted to go to the workhouse. He was accommodated with a thirty-day sentence.

Pair of Fingers Fined.
Joseph McCarthy forfeited $100 bail in the police court yesterday for assaulting William Whelan, Jr. For striking his wife Robert Bowman was required to pay the court $10 or go to jail for thirty days.

Endured Cruelty for Ten Years.
Julia Johnson yesterday sued Stephen Johnson for a divorce. Johnson was for twelve years prior to 1890 an employee of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and until a year ago ran a barber shop on Twelfth street and later a pool room. For the past ten years he has subjected her to brutal treatment. He has tried to cut her throat, to shoot her, to chop up her trunk, in May, 1892, drove her out of the house in the rain, and twice has forfeited collateral when she had him arrested. She asks for custody of the boy, restoration of her name, Howard, for half the money taken from the sale of their house, and for alimony.

President Dunlop Will Appear.
Acting President Dunlop, of the Washington and Georgetown Railroad Company, has made arrangements to appear in the police court to-morrow to answer to the warrants charging the company with operating 175 unlicensed cars.

More Trouble for Branner.
John Branner, who is alleged to have set fire to his own house in South Washington on Monday night, will also be charged with the larceny of a $500 pension check from James Thurston, the pensioner who was with him on the night of the fire.

Pearl Necklace Thief Held.
Judge Miller held James T. Farrell, colored, for the grand jury in $1,000 bonds yesterday. He is charged with the theft of a pearl necklace valued at $1,500 from Sevelon A. Brown, an attaché of the Korean legation; also a collection of rare Russian, French, and Chinese coins valued at $5.

Treasury Laborer in Trouble.
William J. Schuyler, a Treasury Department laborer, was held in $500 bonds for the grand jury by Judge Miller yesterday on the charge of stealing a bicycle valued at $80 from Charles Francis Jenkins.

Little World Not Marry Him.
Landon Shears, a tall colored veteran, swore out a warrant yesterday afternoon against Lillie Ann Croton, a boxom colored widow, who he alleges procured $7 of his pension money under the promise that she would marry him last night. He alleges, however, that the frail Lillie instead of buying wedding cake, with other things for the ceremony, refused to keep her promise to marry him and spent the amount for beer and gin, with which she entertained Landon's rival in her affections.

Police Court as a Subject.
Rev. Adolphe Allen, co-pastor of Dr. Sunderland's Presbyterian Church, occupied a seat on the police court bench beside Judge Kimball yesterday. It is said he was gathering data for a sermon on the dark side of life, to be delivered next Sunday.

Elected its Civil Officers.
The Washington Light Infantry had its regular annual election of civil officer's last night. The following were elected for the next ensuing year: Capt. C. H. Ourand, recording secretary; Capt. Allison Naylor, treasurer; L. M. Niles, historian; and J. R. Sutton, financial secretary. New members of the corps were elected as follows: Jesse B. Schaffert, William F. Slaven, Louis T. Hurlburt, John H. Jackson, E. B. Sherrell, Richard L. Lamb, K. G. Jolly, H. A. Lavison, A. S. Yeller, Carroll Harbaugh, Allan Bremner, Roderick D. Watson, Charles Wiles,

ANOTHER MIRACLE.

A Story from Georgetown Which Will Interest Everyone.

The Following Remarkable Story of Mr. Robert L. Johnson, Who Resides at 3332 B Street Northwest, Is But One of Many.

"I have been afflicted with nervous debility for several years, troubling on the slightest excitement, and suffering the greatest mental agony. I was in constant fear that something was about to happen to me, and was unable to obtain the proper amount of sleep and rest at night. In the morning and in the afternoon, I experienced a constant gloomy depression; the thoughts of my weakened powers were ever present, and added to my despondency, which was aggravated by the consciousness that my follies and excesses alone were responsible for my awful condition. My nervous system was shattered and my power and ambition gone. I had so often failed to obtain relief, either from many physicians who had treated me, or the advertised remedies I had purchased and tried, that I at last reached the conclusion that suicide alone could end my troubles. Thank God for my salvation, which came like an inspiration. After having read of the many wonderful cures performed by Dr. Walker, I concluded to make one more effort and went to him and placed myself in his hands. I am happy to say I commenced to improve from the very first day, and my improvement has been steady and continuous. My nerves have wholly regained their former strength, and the trembling which almost entirely incapacitated me has disappeared. I am now, as I once was, a healthy, vigorous man, and my work, my study, my pleasure, my life, is again filled with hope and ambition. I cannot express in words how high Dr. Walker and cheerfully recommend him to all persons afflicted with disease. I reside at 3332 B street northwest, Georgetown. Have lived in Washington fifteen years and am by trade a plasterer."

J. L. Brower, esq., a gentleman well known in the District, whose word is as good as his bond, says: "I have suffered from aggravated constipation, piles, and kidney trouble for seventeen years, unable to obtain permanent relief. A friend recommended me to place myself under the care of Dr. Walker, and his treatment was wonderful. From the very first day my improvement has been steady and continuous. My home is in Milesburg, Centre county, Pa., but I am at present residing at 27 E street northwest."

No less remarkable than the above are a hundred other cases that might be cited illustrating the unprecedented success of Dr. Walker in the treatment of all disorders of the Brain, Nervous system, diseases of the Colon and blood, catarrh, asthma, consumption, dyspepsia, malaria, rheumatism, neuritis, hemorrhoids, diseases of women, loss of vitality, and all other chronic affections of the liver, stomach, kidneys, bladder, bowels, and other organs.

Young or middle-aged men suffering from the effects of excessive drinking should call on Dr. Walker, who has been the means of restoring hundreds of such unfortunates to health, strength, and happiness.

Dr. Walker may be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter. His well-known sanitarium at 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining Willard's Hotel, is open daily for consultation and treatment. My home is in Milesburg, Centre county, Pa., but I am at present residing at 27 E street northwest."

Charges for treatment very low. All interviews and correspondence strictly confidential. No cases made public without consent of patients.

W. B. Corwell, John C. Schneider, H. A. Rice, Henry Berger, George M. Colburn, and Colorado Dallas. Mr. Frank Finley was elected an honorary member. The corps decided to have a parade on February 23, 1895, and to invite all members of the National Guard having a parade uniform to join with them.

In Uncle Sam's Drag Net.
The "Black Maria" yesterday brought to court from the work house and jail, John Shea, Eugene Mercer and Rebecca Williams, who are alleged to have been engaged in the illegal liquor traffic in South Washington. After being taken into the police court United States warrants were served upon them for violating the internal revenue laws. Shea and the Williams woman have been convicted for violating the District liquor law and are serving their sentences. Mercer, in jail awaiting trial on a similar charge. The hearing in the United States cases were for to-morrow, and bonds were fixed at $500 each. Should they be found guilty of violating the internal revenue laws the penalty fixed by the statutes the lowest possible would be $500 fine and six months' imprisonment, and from that to a $5,000 fine and two years' incarceration.

Improvement in the Death Rate.
As received at the health department, the reports of mortality for the last week show an improvement of over 12 per cent. as compared with those of the previous week. The death rate for the week ending December 3, 1894, was 16.6 to 100,000 inhabitants, the rate being as 16.6 to 23.5 per thousand inhabitants. No special malady became prominent, and no deaths occurred from any one cause. This disease has not made its appearance in any direction since the last report, and there is good ground for saying that it has been completely controlled and extinguished throughout the city. The other dangerous contagious diseases are at such a degree of abeyance as not to be a source of anxiety, and the health of the city may be pronounced excellent.

Union Veterans' Union Election.
At the regular meeting of W. S. Hancock Command, No. 1, U. V. U., last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Colonel, C. W. Sherman; lieutenant colonel, C. G. Ballenger; major, A. A. Rice; adjutant, E. S. Hadden; chaplain, G. W. White; adjutant, A. A. Forbush; quartermaster, A. R. Frisbie; officer day, W. C. Butler; and officer guard, P. Kayne. The regular meeting of the command will be held on Monday next.

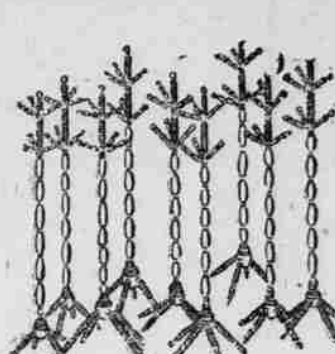

All Left to the Children.
Sergeant-at-Arms H. W. Snow is executor without bond of the will of late John D. Darrell. He leaves all his property to his children, William C. Darrell and Inda D. Nance.

Witness on the Stand Arrested.
"There has been entirely too much perjury committed in this case of late," said Judge Kimball yesterday, "as he commanded a colored girl named Clara Coats to be taken into custody and locked up. Clara expressed in the police court as prosecuting witness against Charles Read, charged with profanity in the hallway of Garfield Colored Baptist Church, on August 27, 1894. Her testimony was directly contradicted by several witnesses for Read, and Officer Green was directed to swear out an information charging the woman with perjury."

Veterans Will Wear Stripes.
A pair of sad-faced veterans answered to the names of Patrick Finnegan and Chauncey Condon in Judge Kimball's court yesterday. They were charged with vagrancy, and Officer Newkirk told the court they had both been "dred out" of the temporary soldiers' home on Missouri avenue because of their habits of drinking and carousing. The men do not receive a pension, but they were "dred out" of the Philadelphia not with a number of veterans who had received their quarterly allotment. "All hands were boiling drunk," said the officer. Ten days in the workhouse each was the court's sentence.
